CONSULTANTS AND CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Meet Andy Griffin

Andy is a partner at Hall, Kistler and is the leader of our audit and assurance team. In addition, he is involved with various firm committees, including those focused on oil and gas, manufacturing, and nonprofit organizations. Andy joined the firm in 2004 and his experience encompasses a wide variety of engagements including audits, reviews, compilations, employee benefit plan audits, and tax returns for individuals and corporate clients. He strives to provide clients with superior service while also keeping up to date on the latest changes in accounting and auditing in order to consistently elevate the firm's standards and effectiveness. Andy serves on the board of the McKinley Presidential Library and Museum.

In his spare time, Andy enjoys reading, anything related to American history, and trying to get exercise whenever he can.
