

Meet Keith Arner

Keith is the Managing Partner at Hall Kistler, bringing over 30 years of auditing, tax, and accounting expertise for both closely held and publicly held companies. He leads the firm's Oil and Gas Niche and holds the Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA) certification. In the community, Keith has been recognized by Stark County's young professional group, YStark!, and received the Stark County Twenty Under 40 award for his commitment to community service. He serves on the boards of TomTod Ideas and Little Leopards Youth Football and is actively involved with the Ohio Oil and Gas Association. On Saturdays in the fall you can find Keith and his wife at Nippert Stadium watching their daughter twirling for the Cincinnati Bearcats. His family also enjoys hiking together or restoring, racing and showing classic muscle cars.
