

Nonprofit Organization Accounting

Smart management and fiscal frameworks will execute your mission.

As a non-profit organization, you work hard to accomplish your mission—likely with less resources than you once had. 501(c)(3) organizations come with unique tax challenges all their own, along with a greater need to maximize available resources.

HK's non-profit team offers financial administrators the business strategies and knowledge to help them understand the numbers they see and make good decisions based on solid monthly reporting.

Accounting Leadership for Non-Profit Organizations

From formation and registration of your non-profit through capital campaigns, record-keeping, form 990 preparation and the all-important audits required by grant issuers and others, we stand beside non-profit organizations of every size.

Hall, Kistler believes strongly that non-profit organizations are a critical part of the community, and we recognize a responsibility to help you complete your important work. Arts groups, religious organizations and private foundations are a few of the many non-profits with which we're proud to partner.
